GOVT. COLLEGE OF ARTS SCIENCE, AURANGABAD (Value based practice of Preservation of Heritage of classical Music) Best Practice regarding preservation and spread of Indian classical music as a heritage 1. Title of the Practices: Gandharva Sangeet Mahotsav (Music Festival) 2. Goal: The aim of this practice is to create cultural atmosphere in the college and society as well as to preserve heritage of Indian classical music. 3. The Content: Our College is one of the oldest institutions for higher education in Marathwada region of Maharashtra state. Department of Music is the oldest department in the region. Very few colleges have music as an optional subject at U.G. and P.G. level. Most of the students admitting here are from rural area and underprivileged group. Many of them possess good singing qualities and performing arts. Gandharva Music festival has brought out an exposure for performing artists. Students of our college and citizens of Aurangabad city enjoyed this festival. Our college has been organizing this festival since 201516. 4. The Practice: College invites legends of classical music at national and international level in this festival. It gives great opportunity to experience performs of stalwarts in music for those students who are artists of tomorrow. Performance by vocalist and performance on instruments are two parts of this festival. Venue of the festival is college auditorium. Timing is at evening 6 pm to 10 pm. Dept of Music attempts to introduce different artists for not only students but also for citizens of Aurangabad. Music lovers use to attend and enjoy festival. Felicitation of renowned artist in the classical music field is an important practice of this festival. Staff members works as organizing committee members on different committees to make it successful every year. There are no fees for entrants. Finance for this festival is through higher education department and United Sigma Hospital, Aurangabad.
