Relief Measures to the needy during Covid-19 Pandemic
(04th July 2021)

NSS committee of the college conducted a social awareness program in the adopted village GOLWADI. This was inspired by the idea 'Majha gaav Corona mukt' and 'My village my responsibility. Students went door to door spreading awareness regarding social distancing, hygiene, mask and vaccine. People who were affected by the pandemic, economically backward people, disabled and addicts were personally given psychological counseling and assurance of needful help.

Next day ten extremely needy families were given food grains like Wheat, Rice, Dal, Sugar, Tea leaves, Spices, Bathing and Washing soaps. Useful medicines like cough syrup, zandu balm, masks and sanitizers etc were also distributed.

A Wheelchair was donated to an extremely poor woman who was above the age of 100. This was a small attempt toward social welfare.

This program was inspired and guided by the Principal of the college Dr. R.H. Satpute and Dr. T.R. Patil, the Director of NSS, Dr. B.A. M. university, Aurangabad. The cooperation of photographer, Mr. Deepak Urgunde, Sarpanch of Golwadi, Smt. Manishatai Dhondge and all the volunteers of NSS namely Priya Waghule, Anand Mane, Sanjeewani Gaikwad, Namrata Patil and others made this program a success. Respected Patil Saheb of Prerna Trust made this program lively by donating Wheelchair.
