Extension activity

Anti drinking campaign in Golwadi village

NSS students of Government College of Arts and Science ran an anti-drinking campaign in the golwadi village. Students explain the bad effects of drinking and tobacco chewing to the villagers. This activity was organized in collaboration with the Suryoday social organization a national level organization working for the rehabilitation of addicted people. Students explained the youth in the village to avoid addiction of liquor, tobacco and other drugs. Chairperson of suryoday organization Mr .Vilas Chandan also joined the students of NSS. He addressed the villagers to avoid the drinking and tobacco chewing as well as smoking. Students wore special clothing for campaign to attract the villagers towards them. Various slogans were written on the clothings which helped to create awareness amongst villagers. NSS program officer Dr. Surendra Thakur, Dr Suchita bharambe Rupesh madkar were present during the campaign in village. This was the beyond the campus activity by NSS students.
